

1. Wastewater is collected from homes & businesses.

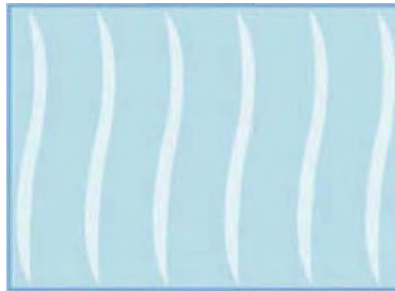

2. Wastewater goes through screening to remove large objects.

3. The aeration basin uses bacteria to break down & digest organic matter.

4. Solid matter settles out of wastewater.

5. Wastewater is filtered and disinfected.

6. The final product- recycled water-is ready to be used for irrigation and industrial processes.